Week 5

Streaming – Watching content online without downloading it.

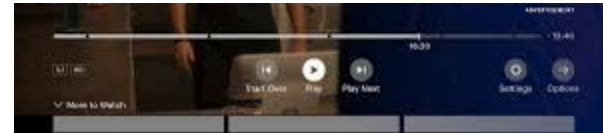

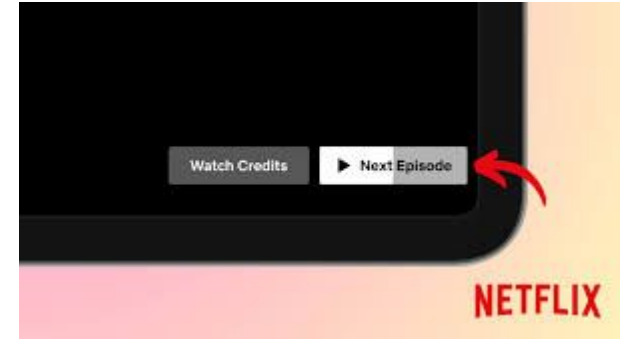

Example: "When you watch Netflix, you're streaming movies over the internet."

Binge-Watching – Watching multiple episodes in one sitting.

Example: "I stayed up too late binge-watching my favorite detective show."

Pause Button – Stops a video temporarily.

Example: "Press the pause button if you need a snack break!"

Subscription – Paying monthly for a streaming service.

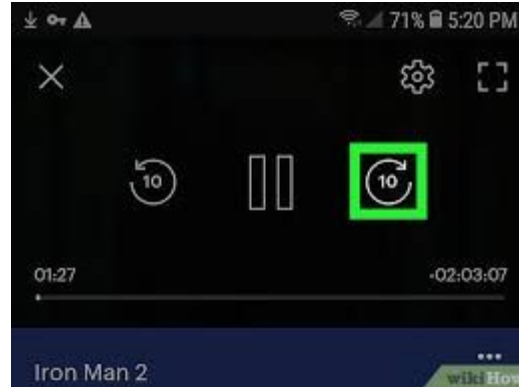

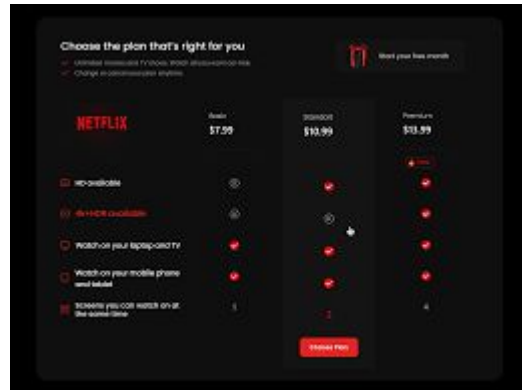

Example: "Netflix and Hulu require a subscription to watch their shows."

Fast-Forward – Skipping ahead in a show or movie.

Example: "You can fast-forward through the boring parts of a movie."

Live Streaming – Watching something as it happens.

Example: "The news station live-streams events like presidential speeches."

Buffering – When a video pauses to load more data.

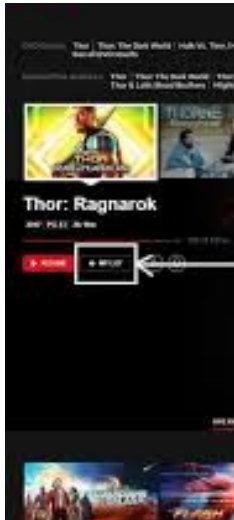

Example: "My internet was slow, so the video kept buffering every few seconds."

Watchlist – A saved list of movies/shows to watch later.

Example: "I added that new documentary to my watchlist so I won't forget."

Smart TV – A TV that connects to the internet for streaming.

Example: "I don't need a cable box anymore because my Smart TV has Netflix built in."

Ad-Supported Streaming – Free streaming with ads.

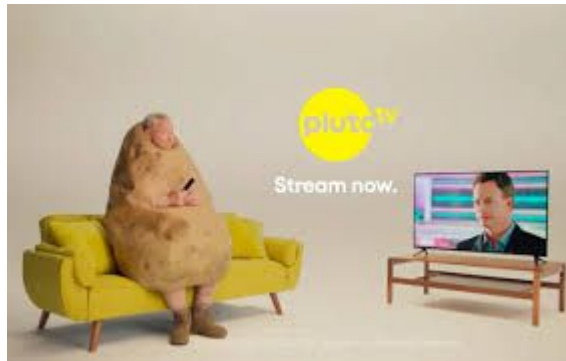

Example: "Pluto TV is free, but I have to watch commercials."

Skip Intro – Button to jump past opening credits.

Example: "I always hit 'Skip Intro' on long TV show openings."

Closed Captions (CC) – On-screen text for spoken words.

Example: "I turn on closed captions so I can read what the actors are saying."

Auto-Play – The next episode starts automatically.

Example: "Be careful! Auto-play makes it easy to keep watching all night."

4K Ultra HD – Higher-quality video resolution.

Example: "If you have a 4K TV, you'll get an even sharper picture."

Rewind – Going back to an earlier part of a video.

Example: "I rewound the scene because I missed an important part."
